

"I don't usually watch TV because it is such a waste of my time. So, I get my news from the internet and NPR and the Thom Hartman show on AM radio. But tonight I was multi-tasking, fixing dinner and checking my email and I had TV news on. Three times, 5:00 5:30 and 6:00 I heard that the new survivor series was starting up again. That is NEWS? It is really a waste of time - like the coverage of Michael Jackson's trial - I do not care about Michael Jackson's scandal and it just makes me wonder - "What are they NOT telling me about (that I should know about) when they are telling me about Michael Jackson. Please don't give me garbage and call it the News. - It insults my intelligence and wastes my precious time."
