

PROTEST BUSH

SATURDAY 05 21 05

MARCH AT 1 PM FROM
CORNER OF EAST BELTLINE
AND LAKE EASTBROOK BLVD
TO CALVIN COLLEGE

President Bush will be in Grand Rapids on May 21st to speak at Calvin College's commencement and we'll be out to make it clear that he is not welcome in Grand Rapids. There will be a variety of different ways to send the message--a radical marching band, street theatre, and protesting along one of the busiest roads in West Michigan. Tell your friends and bring your signs, banners, noisemakers, and whatever else you need.

* The intersection of the East Beltline and Lake Eastbrook Blvd is at the entrance to Woodland Mall. We'll march from there along the Beltline to the intersection of East Beltline and Burton for more information and updates: www.mediamouse.org

The parade of war criminals continues on the 25th when Colin Powell comes to downtown Grand Rapids. Logon to www.mediamouse.org to find out more about protests during his visit.